December 2001 Winter Edition

Beef-O-Bob

Where's the Beef? We ate it all this summer. And what a summer!! One of the warmest and driest on record. Those of you at camp for the first four weeks felt a bit of cool weather and rainy days. After the first 10 days of camp, we had no rain until late September. Temperatures were in the high 90'sF (30'sC) and it was so dry the grass on the Wally Weber Field all turned brown, the Knoepfli Falls stopped running and an Ontario Provisional Fire Ban was issued. (Remember our Cat Tail Campfire in the fireplace of the Playhouse?) The dry weather limited our number of cookouts during the summer and the hot nights made sleeping sometimes unbearable. Newly acquired fans for some of the cabins were a must.

But the greatest benefit of this hot, dry weather was that the lake water warmed up to a very, very comfortable 80 degrees F (25 C). Remember back in July having to dive down to the bottom of the lake just to reach the cool water?! Those were the days, helping to prepare for the Chikopi Mile Swim and making canoe trips a warm and pleasant experience.

The 2001 Chikopi season came and went with gusto and a feeling of accomplishment. Everyone had the opportunity to leave camp with new experiences, new friends and with a feeling that the experience helped make you more confident and a better athlete with a sense of self-worth. There were many occasions to have to make choices. Hopefully you made the right choices, and if not, now you know it and would do differently next time. Growing and learning includes making mistakes, but you try not to repeat the same mistake. Congratulations to everyone on joining the Alumni ranks of Camp Chikopi and the thousands of boys who have come before you in the 82 years of Chikopi.

Final-Night Banquet Goes Five Hours

On August 15, we gathered at 7.00pm in the Buck and RoseMary Dawson Mainhouse for the end-of-the-summer banquet. Roast turkey, roast beef, potatoes, vegetables, condiments, juice, chocolate milk and desert greeted us all followed by Neil's homemade pizza at banquet end - 12.00 midnight. Singing of National Anthems, introductions of visiting parents and family, awards, a few speeches, recognition and Bill Jackson's home-made video highlighted the evening. Awards were presented to both sets of four week campers and seven week campers.
